RAEBURN PRIMARY SCHOOL COMPLAINTS PROCEDURES

February 2018

INTRODUCTION

This guidance document suggests a four-stage complaints procedure to manage complaints from parents, guardians and members of the general public starting with an informal stage for concerns and ending with an appeal to the governing body. The first stage deals with concerns which have the potential to be managed by the majority of the staff during the course of their duties. Complaints dealt with at stage 2 should either be managed by the Head teacher or a senior member of staff. When a formal complaint arises and is not dealt with to the satisfaction of the complainant, it will first be addressed by the Head teacher at stage 3, if they have not been involved at stage 2, then subsequently by the governing body at stage 4.

Section 29 of the Education Act 2002 requires governing bodies of all maintained schools and nursery schools in England to have in place a procedure to deal with complaints. Governors may wish to refer to the Department for Education website for further information regarding "Complaints against Schools".

The governing body is aware that it may need to have a response mechanism to urgent or serious complaints about the Head teacher or a senior staff member, a member or the Chair of the governing body, and have appropriate provision in place. (See stage 4 Guidelines for a committee of governors dealing with complaints).

Complaints not covered by the procedure

Staff grievance and capability proceedings along with child protection investigations are also outside the process.

The range of complaints

Concerns raised are likely to be wide ranging and varied and could include complaints concerning:

- a child's lack of progress at school
- disagreements over school policy e.g. homework
- health and safety issues, cleanliness of facilities and state of repair
- inappropriate discipline
- individual teacher's actions or attitudes toward a parent or pupil
- lack of effective action e.g. over bullying
- playground supervision
- racist behaviour
- sexual harassment
- teacher's failure to keep order
- unfair treatment of child

Our working definition of a complaint is:

"A clear statement of dissatisfaction of a service provided or requested".

This would arise if a concern was not dealt with to the satisfaction of the complainant at stage one. It is vital that parents are aware of the procedure for raising concerns and all staff understand how to respond appropriately.

GENERAL PRINCIPLES OF THIS PROCEDURE

Publicity (for parents, guardians and members of the public)

To ensure parents and guardians know how they can raise a concern or lodge a formal complaint, the school's complaints procedure is easily accessible, easy to understand and well publicised.

A summary of the procedure for dealing with complaints is included in the prospectus and posted on the school's Website. The leaflet at Appendix A explains how concerns are dealt with and how the complaints procedure works.

If necessary, the school will arrange to have the procedures available in languages other than English, British Sign Language and/or in a tape cassette version, Braille or large print version.

Timescale

These procedures are designed to address complaints as speedily as possible and be consistent with fairness to all concerned. Experience demonstrates that at the first stage the majority of concerns can be dealt with and resolved immediately. Where a concern cannot be dealt with immediately, the employee dealing with the issue will note a response date for the complainant and will record it to ensure a reply is communicated. The response time set by the Governing body is a maximum of 15 school days. Where there has been a formal complaint in writing the Governing body has established that a decision is required to be communicated in writing within a maximum of 15 school days of receiving the complaint. If a decision cannot be communicated within the deadline, then a letter should be written to the complainant indicating a date by which a decision will be made.

Support for Complainant

It is important for a complainant also to know where they can go for information, advice and advocacy. School offers support for this initially through our Parent Support Worker as well as from individuals and organisations who are clearly separate from those complained against, such as Parents' Partnership, Citizens Advice Bureaux, Community Relations Councils, Refuge support organisations etc.

Parents or others raising concerns or complaints will be made aware that if they consider it appropriate they are welcome to be accompanied by a friend, a relative or a representative at any stage of the procedure.

Support for a person complained against

Staff who may be questioned as part of a complaints procedure investigation must feel they are being treated in a fair way and that they too will have an opportunity to put their case. They should be told about the procedure and be kept informed of progress. The school recognises that there is a crucial balance to be maintained between supporting the individual so that his/her rights and reputation are protected, and investigating a complaint thoroughly and impartially.

The complaints procedure is distinct from formal disciplinary proceedings for staff and this will be made clear to all concerned. There may be occasions where a complaint launches a disciplinary procedure which puts the complaints procedure on hold. If so, the complainant will be informed of this and any non-disciplinary aspects of the complaint will be dealt with by the usual complaints procedures; the complainant will be "up-dated" on likely further delays to a response. It may be clear after the disciplinary procedures have been completed that particular responses to the complainant are required.

Confidentiality

It is very important to treat conversations and correspondence with discretion. It is vitally important that complainants feel confident that their complaint will not penalise their child. However, from the outset all parties to a complaint will need to be aware that some information may have to be shared with others involved in the operation of the complaints procedure. The Head teacher and members of the senior leadership team may feel it appropriate to be accompanied by another member of staff when dealing with some complaints. Complainants will be made aware that a written record will be maintained of all meetings as part of the procedure.

Anonymous Complaints

Although it is usually proper to disregard anonymous complaints unless somebody is prepared to substantiate them, the Head teacher will be aware of the danger in this is that they may relate to something quite serious. If the unforeseen eventuality occurs, to the detriment of the school, the complainant may subsequently make themselves known and say that s/he alerted the school even though the complaint was unsigned. It will be at the Head teacher or Governing Body's discretion to decide whether the gravity of an anonymous complaint warrants an investigation.

Redress

If the outcome of the complaint procedure shows the school is at fault, it may often be sufficient to provide redress in the form of an acknowledgement that the complaint is valid. Alternatively, it may be appropriate to offer one or more of:

an apology,

an explanation,

a promise that the event complained of will not recur, an undertaking to review school policies or practices in the light of the complaint, or, in appropriate circumstances, financial compensation.

Fear of litigation will not prevent school from admitting when mistakes have been made, but advice will be sought from the Authority's Risk and Insurance Section if financial compensation is being sought or if litigation is a possibility.

Staff Awareness and Training

School staff, including non-teaching staff, are made familiar with the procedures so that they can advise complainants about the process. There may be a great many staff who will, at some point, be involved in handling complaints. Their confidence in doing so depends on their having clear information about the procedures, and reassurances that senior staff are committed to the procedures and some basic training in the practical interpersonal skills needed in dealing with people who are upset or angry. However should the complainant act aggressively or in an unreasonable manner the complaints procedure will be delayed. All staff are made aware of the advice contained in the

LA policy and guidance document Health & Safety Arrangements for Managing Violence and Aggression towards Staff

Record Keeping

If complaints are to contribute to raising the quality of education, then good practice would suggest they need to be recorded and monitored by senior staff and reported to the governors where appropriate.

Recording should begin at the point when a concern has become a complaint that can not be resolved on the spot but needs investigation and/or consultation with others in the school and will require a later report back (either orally, or in writing) to the complainant. All such complaints should be notified to the Head teacher.

Recording at the earliest stage needs only be a very basic record of the complaint, giving the date, name of complainant and general nature of the complaint. A pro forma for comments and complaints is given at page 9.

THE COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

STAGE 1

GUIDELINES FOR DEALING WITH CONCERNS

1.1 The vast majority of concerns and complaints can be resolved informally. There are many occasions where concerns are resolved straight away through the class teacher or office staff or Head teacher, depending on whom the complainant first approached.

1.2 Complainants must feel able to raise concerns with members of staff without any formality, either in person, by telephone or in writing.

1.3 At first it may be unclear whether a complainant is asking a question or expressing an opinion rather than making a complaint. A complainant may want a preliminary discussion about an issue to help decide whether he or she wishes to take the issue further.

Procedure to use at Stage 1

1.4 Complainants may be offered an opportunity to discuss their concern with the appropriate member of staff designated to deal with the situation who will clarify with the complainant the nature of the concern, and reassure them that the school wants to hear about it. The member of staff may be able to explain to the complainant how the situation happened. It can be helpful to identify at this point what sort of outcome the complainant is looking for.

1.5 If the member of staff first contacted cannot immediately deal with the matter, s/he should make a clear note of the date, name, contact address or phone number and a brief note on the nature of the complaint.

1.6 All members of staff should know how to refer on a concern, if necessary, to the person with responsibility for the particular issue raised by the complainant. S/he should check later to make sure that the referral has been successful.

1.7 On major issues, the Deputy or Head teacher will deal with concerns directly at this stage.

1.8 If the concern relates to the Head teacher, the complainant should be advised to contact the Chair of the Governing Body, giving them details of how to do so.

1.9 The staff member dealing with the concern should make sure that the complainant is clear what action (if any) or monitoring of the situation has been agreed, putting this in writing only if this seems the best way of making things clear. However, a note should be made of the action and retained.

1.10 Where no satisfactory solution has been found within a maximum of 15 school days, complainants should be asked if they wish their concern to be considered further. If they do then they should be given clear information, both orally and in writing, about how to proceed and about any independent advice available to them.

GUIDELINES FOR DEALING WITH COMPLAINTS

2.1 At stage 2 it has become clear that the concern is a definite complaint. In some cases the Head teacher or senior member of staff will already have been involved in looking at the matter; in others it is her first involvement. In either case, it is helpful for the Head teacher (or the person delegated to investigate) to use guidelines to ensure consistency among cases, and to make sure that nothing happens at this stage which could make it difficult for later stages to proceed smoothly.

2.2 As Head teachers have responsibility for the day-to-day management of their schools, they also have responsibility for the implementation of a complaints procedure, including the decisions about their own involvement at various stages.

One of the reasons for having various "stages" in a complaints procedure is to reassure complainants that their grievance may be heard by more than one person.

Procedure to use at Stage 2

2.3 The Head teacher (or designate) acknowledges the complaint orally or in writing, within a maximum of 3 school days of receiving the complaint, confirming the exact nature of the complaint. The acknowledgement should give a brief explanation of the school's complaint procedure and a target date for providing a response to the complaint. This will be within 15 school days but, if this proves impossible, a letter will be sent explaining the reason for the delay and giving a revised target date for a response.

2.4 The Head teacher (or designate) provides an opportunity for the complainant to meet him/her to supplement any information provided previously. It will be made clear to the complainant that if s/he wishes, s/he may be accompanied to any meeting by a friend, relative, representative, or advocate who can speak on his or her behalf; and that interpreting facilities are available if needed.

2.5 If necessary, the Head teacher (or designate) will interview witnesses and take signed statements from witnesses and those involved. If the complaint concerns a pupil, the pupil identified should be interviewed. The pupil should preferably be interviewed with another member of staff present and in the case of a serious complaint with their parents present.

2.6 It is strongly advised that the Head teacher (or designate) keep a written record of interviews, telephone conversations, and other documentation.

2.7 Once all the relevant facts have been established, the Head teacher (or designate) will then produce a written response to the complainant, or may wish to meet the complainant to discuss/resolve the matter directly.

2.8 A written response should include a full explanation of the decision and the reasons for it. Where appropriate, this should include what action the school will take to resolve the complaint. The complainant should be advised that if s/he wishes to take the complaint further s/he should notify the Chair of the Governing Body within a maximum of 10 school days of receiving the outcome letter.

2.9 If a complaint is against the action of a Head teacher, the Chair of the Governing Body should carry out all the Stage 2 procedures.

STAGE 3

RECONCILIATION STAGE

This stage in the procedure can follow Stage 2 where the earlier stage has been investigated by a senior member of staff other than the Head teacher.

If the complainant is not content with the decision reached by the designate in response to their complaint they may then refer the matter to the Head teacher. This must take place within a maximum of 15 school days.

The Head teacher will endeavour to resolve any complaint referred to her at this stage and will seek to arrange a meeting with the complainant as soon as practical.

The meeting offers an opportunity to reassess all the issues, discuss any further findings from the Head teacher's investigation, clarify the action to be taken by the school and allay the complainant's worries in order to seek reconciliation.

In some circumstances, it may be appropriate to invite the LA to act as conciliator.

Should the complainant still be dissatisfied then they should be directed to put their complaint in writing to the Chair of Governors.

STAGE 4

GUIDELINES FOR THE GOVERNORS' COMMITTEE DEALING WITH COMPLAINTS

Procedure for review by the Governing Body

4.1 Upon receipt of a written complaint appropriate to this stage of the procedure or where a complainant appeals against the decision of the Head teacher (Stage 2 of the procedure) within the agreed period, within a maximum of 15 school days of receipt of the decision letter, the Head teacher must notify the Chair of Governors so that a review can be instituted.

4.2 The Clerk to the Governing Body should write to the complainant to acknowledge the Chair of Governors has received a written request for a review. The letter will also explain that the complainant has the right to submit any further documents relevant to the complaint. These should be made available immediately so that they can be circulated to all committee members.

4.3 The committee of the Governing Body will set a timetable for the investigation and will communicate the timetable to the complainant.

4.4 The Clerk to the Governors will arrange to convene the Complaints Committee, elected from members of the Governing Body. The Governing Body will appoint reserves to this committee to ensure that three governors are available to carry out their task within the set time.

4.5 The Complaints Committee members should be governors who have had no prior involvement with the complaint. If she has not previously been involved, the Chair of the Governing Body will chair the committee; otherwise the Vice-Chair should do so.

Generally it is not appropriate for the Head teacher to have a place on the committee.

4.6 The Chair/Vice Chair should ensure that the complaint is heard by the committee within a maximum of 20 school days of receiving the letter. All relevant correspondence regarding the complaint must be made available to the committee members at least 5 school days before the hearing.

4.7 The Chair/Vice-Chair will write and inform the complainant, Head teacher, any relevant witnesses, and members of the committee at least 5 school days in advance, of the date, time and place of the meeting. The notification to the complainant should also inform him/her of the right to be accompanied to the meeting by a friend/ advocate/interpreter. The letter should also explain how the meeting will be conducted and the complainant's right to submit further written evidence to the committee.

4.8 The Chair/Vice-Chair of the Governing Body should invite the Head teacher to attend the committee meeting and prepare a written report for the committee in response to the complaint. The Head teacher may also invite members of staff directly involved in matters raised by the complainant to respond in writing or in person to the complaint. Any relevant documents including the Head teacher's report should be received by all concerned - including the complainant - at least 5 school days prior to the meeting.

4.9 The involvement of staff other than the Head teacher is subject to the discretion of the Chair of the committee.

4.10 It is the responsibility of the Chair of the committee to ensure that the meeting is properly minuted.

4.11 The aim of the meeting should be to resolve the complaint and achieve a reconciliation between the school and the complainant. However, it has to be recognised that sometimes it may only be possible to establish facts and make recommendations which will satisfy the complainant that his or her complaint has been taken seriously.

4.12 The committee should remember that many complainants are unused to dealing with groups of people in formal situations and may feel inhibited when speaking to the committee. It is therefore recommended that the Chair of the committee ensures that the proceedings are as informal as possible.

4.13 If either party should intend to introduce previously undisclosed evidence or witnesses, it is in the interests of natural justice to adjourn the meeting so that the other side has time to consider and respond to the new evidence.

4.14 The meeting should allow for:

- the complainant to explain their complaint and the Head teacher to explain the school's response.
- the Head teacher to question the complainant about the complaint and the complainant to question the Head teacher and/or other members of staff (if invited to be present by the Chair of the committee) about the school's response.
- committee members to have an opportunity to question both the complainant and the Head teacher.
- any party to have the right to call witnesses (subject to the approval of the Chair) and all parties having the right to question all the witnesses.
- final statements by both the complainant and the Headteacher.

4.15 The Chair of the committee should explain to the complainant and the Head teacher that the committee will consider its decision, and a written decision will be sent to both parties within a maximum of 15 school days. The complainant, Head teacher, other members of staff and witnesses should then leave.

4.16 The committee should then consider the complaint and all the evidence presented and (a) reach a unanimous, or at least a majority, decision on the complaint and (b) decide upon the appropriate action to be taken to resolve the complaint and (c) where appropriate, suggest recommended changes to the school's systems or procedures to ensure that problems of a similar nature do not happen again.

4.17 A written statement outlining the decision of the committee must be sent to the complainant and Head teacher.

4.18 The chair should ensure that parents are aware that they can complain to the Secretary of State for Education and Employment if they are unhappy with the outcome of the review.

4.19 The school should ensure that a copy of all correspondence and notes are kept on file in the school's records.

Complaints concerning the teacher/s with responsibility for investigating complaints

Where a complaint concerns in whole or part the conduct of the teacher responsible for investigating complaints, the teacher should, on receipt of the formal complaint, immediately refer the matter to the Head teacher.

The Head teacher may either designate another member of staff to act as the teacher with responsibility for investigating the complaint, or she may herself deal with the complaint.

Complaints concerning the Head teacher, a Governor or the Governing Body

In these cases the Chair of the Governing Body must investigate the complaint.

The complainant can appeal against the decision of the Chair within a maximum of 15 school days of receipt of the decision letter. The Governing Body can either delegate the appeal to the complaints committee, or may, where they think it appropriate, appoint 3 other governors to form a complaints panel to investigate and make a recommendation, by majority decision, to the Governing Body.

Complaints concerning the Chair of Governors

A senior member of staff or Head teacher, upon receiving a formal complaint against the Chair, must notify the clerk, who must then table the complaint at an extraordinary meeting of the Governing Body. The Chair must withdraw from any discussion. The Governing Body may either decide to refer the matter to the LA, or must refer the complaint to the Complaints Committee of the Governing Body.

Withdrawal of Complaints

Formal complaints may be withdrawn at any stage by notice in writing.

Complaints by members of the Governing Body and pupils

A complaint by a governor may be discussed at a full meeting of the Governing Body. The Governing Body delegates the responsibility of managing complaints by pupils to the professionals. Pupils, on lodging a complaint with a member of staff, will be assured that it will be dealt with expediently and that, if they are not satisfied with the response, they can take their complaint to the Head teacher then Governing Body.

Complaints Procedure

This is publicised in the school prospectus and made widely known to parents e.g. at induction meetings of new pupils.

A copy of the complaints procedure is available on the Schools website..

Complaints Register

A register of all formal complaints made under the complaints procedure should be maintained. The register should include the following:

- a) name and address of the complainant
- b) a brief description of the complaint
- c) a record of the time taken to resolve the matter
- d) the outcome of the complaint.

COMPLAINTS COMMITTEE

Role

The committee has the power to make decisions on behalf of the Governing Body and may

- uphold the complaint
- uphold it in part, or
- dismiss it

Where the issue under consideration does not fall within the remit of the committee, the members may still wish to make recommendations. A Complaints Committee will be appointed at the Governing Body meeting in the Autumn Term. The composition of this Committee will be considered carefully. Dealing with any complaints that reach this stage is likely to be challenging, but careful planning early on can avoid unnecessary complications.

Membership

Any Complaints Committee members must not have had previous significant involvement with the complaint under review. For this reason, parent and teacher/staff governors will not be appointed unless it is unavoidable.

Whoever is appointed must be prepared to attend any meeting at short notice.

Three governors (excluding the Head teacher) form the Complaints Committee and the Chair/ Vice-Chair will be one of the members. Substitutes will be appointed to take the place of any committee member who might be unavailable. The minutes of the Governors' meeting (usually in the Autumn Term) will show exactly who should be called for a meeting and in what order.

Chair

The Governing Body will, where possible, appoint a Chair for the Complaints Committee at the same time as they decide on the membership of the committee. This avoids uncertainty all round and allows the Chair of the committee to take control of the situation before the meeting as well as during and after it. This is essential for a successful outcome. Previous experience of chairing a meeting is preferable.

Governors should be aware that these meetings can be difficult and that the unexpected frequently occurs.

Clerk

The clerk should draw up the agenda and make all the necessary arrangements for the meeting.

COMPLAINTS COMMITTEE MEETING

Before a meeting

A copy of the agenda, the complaint, and any written response from the Head teacher should be sent to Complaints Committee members and the Chair of Governors at least five school days before the meeting. Each member must immediately read the papers to check that they have no significant involvement with the case under consideration, but should not discuss it with anyone else. If they need to withdraw from the committee the clerk should organise a substitute. It is essential to withdraw at this stage so that a substitute can be arranged.

Practical arrangements

The tone of the meeting is often set by what happens when the complainant first arrives.

Therefore it is worth the Chair considering the following:

What time will participants be asked to arrive?

Who will greet participants when they arrive?

Will anyone wait with them?

Where will other people wait? (Separate places for complainants and school representatives may be advisable).

Will there be any refreshments provided?

Where will the meeting take place?

How will the meeting room be arranged? (Small informal arrangements are usually best)

What route will the complainant and school representatives take to the meeting room?

The meeting

The model agenda is attached at page 13.

The same rules apply as for other committee meetings of governors. For example, governors are not bound to accept tabled papers and may adjourn if they feel that they need time to consider an unexpected issue, including procedural issues.

Chair's role

During the meeting

- Take control of the meeting with confidence; use their judgement to move the meeting on when necessary and aim towards a resolution by coming to a conclusion on the written and oral evidence presented at the meeting.
- Convey to all concerned that as Chair you are acting impartially by treating all participants even handedly.
- The complainant and the Head teacher (with their friends/advocates) should be invited in and asked to leave together.
- At the discretion of the Chair witnesses should be invited to join the meeting when their input is required and to leave immediately afterwards.
- It is not appropriate for a child/pupil to attend.
- Having ascertained the names of all those waiting outside the meeting room, start the meeting by agreeing with the committee who should be invited in to speak to the committee and in what order; at no time should the complainant, Head teacher or a witness be able to talk to committee members without both the complainant and Head teacher being present; these arrangements may have to be modified if one or more of the parties have absented themselves from the meeting.
- If witnesses are waiting, the Chair should try to ensure that they are called in due course if required or sent home early if it becomes apparent that they will not be seen.
- Once the main participants have joined the meeting, explain the proceedings.
- Begin to hear the complaint being firm about keeping to the agenda and reminding participants as necessary about the procedure, e.g. if interruptions occur.
- Bear in mind that all participants will be under stress; be even-handed in the treatment of all participants.

Explaining the proceedings

- Introduce the people round the table.
- Explain that the agenda will be followed.
- Run down the items briefly and let the participants know if they will be able to hear the decision at the end of the meeting.
- If the complaint is complex and there are some aspects of it that fall outside the committee's remit, clarify this and explain exactly which aspects of the complaint can be addressed by the committee; later, advise the complainant as to how best to follow up any complaint that could not be dealt with by the committee. Alternatively, the committee may wish to consider making representations to the responsible authority for those areas that fall outside its remit.

- Make it clear that although the meeting will be as informal as possible, it is intended to keep to the agenda to allow everyone to have a fair hearing.
- Explain that the complainant will speak without interruption and then allow the Head teacher and complaints committee members to ask any questions to clarify any issues raised; then the Head teacher's response will be heard, again without interruption and there will be an opportunity for the committee and the complainant to ask any questions about what has been said and so on.
- Indicate any time limits to adhere to.

Concluding the discussion

- It is important that all the participants feel that they have had every opportunity to be heard but if they are beginning to repeat themselves at the "further questions or points" stage, move the meeting on by proceeding to the summing up. The complainant and Head teacher should then be invited to sum up if they wish but if the issues are clear, formal summing up may not seem to be appropriate.
- Confirm the arrangements for the participants to receive the decision of the meeting.
- Write down the decision of the committee so this can be accurately recorded in the minutes.
- If the participants are invited back to hear the decision, make it clear to all parties that no further discussion is possible.

The decision letter and minutes

- The clerk to the Complaints Committee should send a copy of the decision letter to the complainant, Head teacher and Chair of governors.
- The clerk to the complaints committee should write the minutes and send them to the Governing Body clerk for distribution to the rest of the governing body; the minutes should record the procedure followed, the decision reached and any recommendations made.
- It is usual for all documents relating to a complaint to be kept confidential.

After the meeting

The chair of the committee should receive a copy of the minutes for confirmation.

RAEBURN PRIMARY SCHOOL - FORMAL COMPLAINT TO A SCHOOL'S GOVERNING BODY: MODEL AGENDA

1. Apologies.
2. To consider members' declaration of interests, entitlement to vote and any requirements to withdraw from the meeting.
3. To confirm the order of the procedure.
4. To agree whether the decision should be conveyed orally to all parties at the end of the meeting (as well as in writing afterwards).
5. Invitation to complainant and Head teacher to join meeting and introduction to governors.
6. Introduction and explanation of procedure.
7. To note the role of the clerk at the meeting.
8. Complainant's presentation and witnesses and questions to both by Head teacher and/or governors.
9. Head teacher's response and witnesses and questions to both by complainant and/or governors.
10. Any further questions or points from any of the parties.
11. Opportunity for summing up by Head teacher.
12. Opportunity for summing up by complainant.
13. Summing up by the Chair.
14. Complainant and Head teacher leave meeting.
15. To decide on the complaint. The committee can
 - uphold the complaint in full
 - uphold it in part, or
 - dismiss it.
16. To consider whether and how to refer issues of principle or general practice to another forum, such as the governing body, or to an individual such as the Head teacher.
17. To inform the complainant and the Head teacher of the Governing Body's decision and further rights of representation (if agreed at 4 above).
18. Confidentiality: to consider whether any items are confidential and should therefore not be available to persons wishing to inspect Governing Body papers.

APPENDIX A:
CONCERNS AND COMPLAINTS ABOUT SCHOOLS
GUIDANCE NOTES FOR PARENTS

If you have a concern or complaint

We would like you to tell us about it. We welcome suggestions for improving our work in the school. Be assured that no matter what you are wanting to tell us, our support and respect for you and your child in the school will not be affected in any way. Please tell us of your concern as soon as possible. It is difficult for us to investigate properly an incident or problem which has happened some time ago.

What to do first

Most concerns can be sorted out quickly by speaking with your child's class teacher.

All staff will make every effort to resolve your problem informally. They will make sure that they understand what you feel went wrong, and they will explain their own actions to you. They will ask what you would like the school to do to put things right. Of course, this does not mean that in every case they will come round to your point of view but it will help both you and the school to understand both sides of the question. It may also help to prevent a similar problem arising again.

What to do next

If you are dissatisfied with the teacher's response (or with the Head teacher's initial reaction if she has already been involved) you can make a complaint to the Head teacher. This should be made in writing. Help with this is available from Mrs Porter in the school office.

If your complaint is about an action of the Head teacher personally, then you should refer it to the Chair of Governors now. You can contact her by letter or phone call to the school office.

You may also find it helpful at this stage to have a copy of the full statement of the General Complaints Procedure as this explains in detail what procedures are followed. This is available from the school office.

The Head teacher will ask to meet you for a discussion of the problem. You may take a friend or someone else with you if you wish. The Head teacher will conduct a full investigation of the complaint and may interview any members of staff or pupils involved. You will receive a written response to your complaint.

If you are still unhappy

The problem will normally be solved by this stage. However, if you are still not satisfied you may wish to contact the Chair of the Governing Body to ask for referral of your complaint to the Complaints Committee of the Governing Body. It will then be heard by a group of three governors who have no previous knowledge of the problem and so will be able to give it a fresh assessment. You will be invited to attend and speak to the committee at a meeting which the Head teacher will also attend. The General Complaints Procedure statement explains how these meetings operate.

Further action

Complaints about school problems are almost always settled within schools but in exceptional cases it may be possible to refer the problem to an outside body such as the Ombudsman (in rare circumstances but particularly in relation to admissions) or the Secretary of State for Education and Skills. Again there is more information on this in the General Complaints Procedure.

Independent Advice

Parents and carers can receive independent advice from both the National Confederation of Parent Teacher Associations and the Advisory Centre for Education, 1c Aberdeen Studios, 22 Highbury Grove, London N5 2DQ. Both organisations may offer advice but will not support individuals in pursuit of a complaint.
